(Distribution list: This Policy shall be read by all staff and members of HKICP, Professional Council and its committees, and the general public.)

1. Objective

1.1 This guideline prescribes the requirements for:

1.1.1 Approval and renewal of Accredited Clinical Supervisor (ACS) of the Hong Kong Institute of Clinical Psychologists (HKICP),

1.1.2 Being a Training Provider for ACS of HKICP.

1.2 It should be read with reference to the following HKICP documents:

1.2.1 Membership Registration and Handling Policy (HKICP-RSD-PO-002-R0)

1.2.2 Guideline on Remedial Training: Supervised Clinical Practice (HKICP- CPD-GL-006-R0)

1.2.3 Guideline on Continuing Professional Development in Clinical Psychology (HKICP-CPD-GL-008-R0)

2. Scope

2.1 Supervised clinical practice is required in the following situations:

2.1.1 An accredited clinical psychologist on the Register of HKICP (i.e. member of Register of Clinical Psychologists accredited by Department of Health) without post-qualification practice experience (e.g. a qualified CP graduate who newly joins the profession) is required to receive 2 years of supervised clinical practice upon renewal of registration.

2.1.2 Under the transitional arrangement, a candidate applying for registration with HKICP but with significant gaps in their clinical training is required to make up the shortfall via supervised clinical practice.

2.2 ACS of HKICP is to provide the supervision required in these two situations.

3. Definitions

3.1 An accredited clinical supervisor (ACS) is a registrant of HKICP who has completed the required supervision training stipulated in this document.

- 3.2 The status of ACS is publically identifiable on the website of HKICP.
- 3.3 ACSs who fail to fulfill the requirements will have their ACS status revoked or may be required to undertake remedial training.

4. Approval and Renewal of Accredited Clinical Supervisor (ACS)

4.1 Requirements for Approval as ACS

To apply for approval as ACS, the candidate has to fulfill the following requirements:

- 4.1.1 Being a registrant of HKICP,
- 4.1.2 Does not have any condition or limit of practice on their registration,
- 4.1.3 Has at least 10 years of clinical supervisory experience,
- 4.1.4 Has successfully completed a HKICP-approved Full Training Programme in Clinical Supervision,
- 4.1.5 Completes the application procedures.

4.2 Continuation and renewal of ACS status

To continue the ACS status, the supervisor has to fulfill the following requirements:

- 4.2.1 Hold and maintain the registration with HKICP,
- 4.2.2 Does not have any condition or limit of practice on their registration,
- 4.2.3 Completes a HKICP-approved ACS Refresher Course every 5 years,
- 4.2.4 Completes the procedures for renewal every 5 years.

4.3 Discontinuation or revocation of ACS status

The status as an ACS may be discontinued or revoked by the HKICP when one of the following situations occurs:

- 4.3.1 The approval of ACS status has expired,
- 4.3.2 The ACS fails to meet the training requirements set out in these guidelines,

4.3.3 An impairment is found to be affecting the ACS' capacity to practice and supervise as an ACS,

4.3.4 There is an adverse finding relating to the ACS' conduct or performance, or HKICP has evidence of the failure of the ACS to adhere to his/her responsibilities.

4.4 Application Procedures

A candidate has to fill in the application form for Accredited Clinical Supervisor and send the completed form together with other required documents to the Education Committee of HKICP for processing (Appendix 1).

5. Competencies of ACS

In order to provide quality supervision, ACS should demonstrate the following 7 competencies:

- 5.1 Knowledge and understanding of the profession,
- 5.2 Knowledge of and skills in effective supervision practices,
- 5.3 Knowledge of and ability to develop and manage the supervisory relationship,
- 5.4 Ability to assess the psychological competencies of the supervisee,
- 5.5 Capacity to evaluate the supervisory process,
- 5.6 Awareness of and attention to diversity,
- 5.7 Ability to address the legal and ethical considerations related to the professional practice of psychology.

6. Full Training Programme in Clinical Supervision for ACS Candidates

Candidates for ACS are required to complete the full training programme which consists of 3 components as follows:

6.1 Knowledge assessment:

This component requires the ACS candidate to have adequate knowledge in the criteria for registration of clinical psychologists with HKICP, administrative requirements of clinical supervision, and legal and ethical issues in clinical psychology practice as well as clinical supervision. It requires 4-7 hours of preparatory work (in terms of reading relevant materials and reflection on practice) and a formal assessment of the preparatory work.

6.2 Skills training:

This component includes a minimum of 12 hours' face-to-face training and should focus on the development of supervision skills that are appropriate to the clinical psychology supervisee. It should provide practical skills training for evaluating the supervisee's competencies and training to develop reflective practice supervision.

6.3 Competency-based assessment and evaluation:

This component involves an assessment of the ACS candidate's supervisory competencies. The ACS candidate has to submit materials such as videotape or reflection paper for the trainer's assessment.

7. Refresher Course for ACS

7.1 An ACS is required to complete a HKICP-approved ACS Refresher Course every 5 years in order to continue their status as ACS.

7.2 Alternatively, an ACS may choose to attend a HKICP-approved Full Training Programme in Clinical Supervision again in lieu of this refresher course.

7.3 The minimum requirement for the Supervisor Refresher Course is a total of at least 6 hours of training which consists of two components:

7.3.1 A review of the updated registration requirements in HKICP and the latest legal and ethical considerations related to the professional practice of psychology,

7.3.2 At least 3 hours of face-to-face training which provides supervisors with an opportunity to reflect on their supervision practice and to extend their knowledge and skills in a particular area of supervision (e.g. reflective practice supervision, legal and regulatory responsibilities, evaluating supervisees, providing feedback, managing difficult supervision situations and ethical issues in supervision, supervision for trauma informed practice, etc.)

8. Training Provider for Accredited Clinical Supervisor
